

Antony Hickling Takes a Spiritual Gay Journey 'Down In Paris' | EDGE Media Network

[...] including an emergency appointment with a psychic (Dominique Frot) and a stopover at a church, where an otherworldly young man (Claudius Pan) reads him the riot act. His words are harsh, and yet the scene is played with a gentleness and intimate energy that open the way to something that might be either a dream or a holy vision.

Extrait de l'article de Kilian Melloy, paru dans Edge Media Network, le 22 mars 2022